Everything of Local Form To be Found That is of Interest.

MONDAY.

A member of the City Council is complaining that the bicycle riders are not complying with the bicycle ordinance. He says the bicycle riders do not make noise enough with their bells.

We feel sorry for one of our fellow townsmen who has suffered financial loss to the tune of several thousand dollars. The gentleman was in business and he placed too much confidence in the business qualifications and integrity of a partner, who became entangled in too many lawsuits.

We might tell you more about One Minute Cough Cure, but you probably know that it cures a cough. Every one does who has used it. It is a perfect remedy for coughs, colds, hoarseness. It is an especial favorite for children, being pleasant to take and quick in curing. J. Maple Wilson.

Mr. Ernst Brown, of New York, is in the city. Mr. Brown is a gentleman of leisure and he is out looking at the country.

Mr. Albert Cottle of St. Louis, who has been visiting friends in this city for the past week returned to his home last Saturday.

Our Jackson friends can now console themselves. They will be healthy this year for they are using pure Cape Ice and Cape Beer.

Died, in this city July 12th, 1896, William Traupe, aged seventy-seven years. The deceased was an old citizen of this city. He was a good citizen and a large circle of friends will regret to learn that he has passed away.

The delegates and politicians who will visit our city to attend the Democratic Congressional convention will find ample accommodations. Our people will see to that.

D. A. Glenn will leave this week for Colorado where he will spend several weeks for the benefit of his health.

Burns are absolutely painless when DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is promptly applied. This statement is true. A perfect remedy for skin diseases, chapped hands and lips, and never fails to cure Piles. J. Maple Wilson.

Henry Hausenschild won a nice carpet the other day in a raffle. Henry is building himself a house, taking chances in carpet and cow raffles and courting a pretty girl. There is going to be something happen surely.

Prof. Vandiver returned home yesterday from a trip through the western counties of the District. He looks fresh and well pleased.

William Oberhide has a bouncing big boy at his house. The new arrival will not be named for Bryan, the Populist candidate for President.

H. L. Hunze is having a lot of cordwood chopped on the Fullerton-Ald land. He is having the wood hauled to the railroad.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer: Dear Sir: Mrs. Hamberg induced me to try your Family Cure, I was greatly benefited by it and I recommended it to every lady in poor health. Respectfully,

Mrs. ASHER.

Sold at J. Maple Wilson's drugstore. M. R. Smith went to St. Louis today. He went to see Judge Adams of the U. S. Circuit Court to get some information as to why Col. Fordyce has not turned over the money he got possession of while receiver of the Kennett road.

D. S. Brown has purchased the Bloomfield railroad and he will extend it to Brownwood.

Oscar Cramer, our Postmaster, went to St. Louis this morning and this time, it is said, he will bring a woman back with him.

If you are bilious, try Dr. Sawyer's Little Wide Awake Pills, you will find them just what you want. Try a free sample. They do not gripe. Sold at J. Maple Wilson's drugstore.

One of Capt. Hunze's ice wagon drivers lost a pair of ice hooks this morning. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning the hooks to H. L. Hunze.

Miss Helen Stoffregen who has been visiting friends and relatives in this city for the past week returned to her home in St. Louis Saturday.

TUESDAY.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer: I have been troubled with rheumatism and lung trouble for a number of years, can say I never had any thing help me like your Family Cure.

Miss H. WINGART, Lena, Ill.

Sold at J. Maple Wilson's drugstore. "Aunt Aggie," a colored woman, died at Jackson Sunday and was buried Monday. She was eighty-three years old, was a highly respected colored lady and her funeral was the largest colored funeral that ever took place in Jackson.

Twenty-five or thirty people will go from this county to the Springfield convention next week.

The Bee Store has the latest out in the way of hats. They are gold and silver campaign hats.

Joe Kirchendoerfer raised an average of twenty bushels of wheat to the acre on the Houck farm on Sprigg street.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey cures all coughs and colds quickly.

Tom McClure, of Wheatland, Illinois, lost his fine barn and its contents yesterday by fire. He had all his grain, hay and machinery in the barn and all was lost.

Wilson Burgess will arrive home in few days from Texas where he went several months ago in search of health. He improved some while out West but he is yet in poor health.

It's just as easy to try One Minute Cough Cure as anything else. It's easier to cure a severe cough or cold with it. Let your next purchase for a cough be One Minute Cough Cure. Better medicine; better result; better try it. J. Maple Wilson.

Our doctors say there is considerable sickness in the city and country but nothing of a serious nature.

Prof. Vandiver's friends here say the Professor will be nominated on the first ballot when the convention meets here next week.

Adolph Ruediger and H. L. Hunze went down to Commerce today on the steamer Idlewild. The Cape Brewery & Ice Company, we understand, is going to start a saloon at Commerce.

Jerry Hitt and Christ Sander, stock buyers, returned home from St. Louis this morning on the Steamer Idlewild.

David A. Glenn did the biggest week's business last week ever done by a merchant in this city.

WEDNESDAY

It's all the same, a slight congested lungs or severe cough. One Minute Cough Cure banishes them. J. Maple Wilson.

Died, in this city July 15, 1896, the infant child of Mrs. Charles Humphrey.

Frank E. Burroughs was successful in another tedious case. This time it is another girl.

Herman Vogelsang is building a house for Henry Hausenschild out in the Painter Addition.

Take a dose of DeWitt's Little Early Risers just for the good they will do you. These little Pills are good for indigestion, good for headache, good for liver complaint, good for constipation. They are good. J. Maple Wilson drug store.

The river continues to drop down and in a few weeks more the steamboats will begin to hang up on sandbars.

The colored people will have a picnic and barbecue at Cousinville on the 25th of this month.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. R. E. Gannon, who has been quite sick for several days, is now improving.

W. H. Bohmsack, Will Juden, C. W. McCrea, C. C. Mitchell and Baby Patton went down to the St. Francis River this morning to spend a few days fishing. They took along with them three cases of beer and a tub full of other liquors.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer: Dear doctor I have used and sold your Family Cure with excellent results. It cured me of the rheumatism and I now am 50 years old and have not an ache or pain.

Mrs. F. A. RHODES, Sutherland, Iowa.

Sold at J. Maple Wilson's drug store.

We are pleased to learn that the new President of St. Vincent's College is going to make an effort to build up the College to something like its former standing. That means from one hundred to two hundred and fifty students.

Married, in this city July 15th, 1896, by Wm. H. Willer, Justice of the Peace, Charles Eldridge and Mary Matney, both of Cape Girardeau county.

Irish potatoes sell in St. Louis for twelve cents per bushel.

"Aunt" Sophia Lewis, the old colored lady who for several years served meals on the Fairgrounds Fair weeks, died Monday and was buried Tuesday evening.

We heard a Democrat say to-day that Judge William Ballentine, of Commerce, had quit the Republican party and was now a howling free silver Populist. We can't believe the story. We knew Judge Ballentine as a Republican when it was dangerous to be a Republican in his locality and we cannot believe that he will go off with these free silver fanatics at this late day when he is becoming old and feeble in health. He is too good a man to go astray.

It is not a miracle. It won't cure everything, but it will cure piles. That's what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will do, because it has done it in hundreds of cases. J. Maple Wilson.

THURSDAY.

The ladies of the Methodist church are making preparations to feed a portion of the crowds who will attend the Congressional convention here next week.

The Cape City Band will furnish music for the Congressional convention here next week.

The funeral of the infant child of Mrs. Charles Humphrey took place this afternoon from the residence of Herman Vogelsang.

Our distinguished visitors next week should be shown the beauties of the city.

Dr. Sawyer: Dear Sir: I can say with pleasure that I have been using your medicine, and will recommend it to all suffering ladies.

MRS. W. W. WEATHERSHEE, Augusta, Ga.

Sold at J. Maple Wilson's drugstore. The electric light located at the corner of Bellevue and Fountain streets failed to shed its rays on those thoroughfares last night. That neighborhood was left in Egyptian darkness all night.

Giboney Houck heard all the big speeches by the big men at the Chicago convention. He was a page and he was on the rostrum all during the convention. He will remember that convention as long as he lives.

E. E. Sutherland Medicine Co.

Gents—I write this letter because I believe you have made a discovery in a cough, cold, throat and lung remedy that the people ought to have. I refer to Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. I have thoroughly tested it and know its wonderful merits. It cures. Any one who ever needs a remedy of this kind should never be without a bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey.

JERRY M. PORTER.

Glass and Queensware, Paducah, Ky.

Miss Beulah Porterfield is visiting relatives in Springfield, Mo.

The City Council was in session this afternoon finishing up some unfinished business.

It is about time the Fair Association management were getting out some advertising matter. We are all interested in seeing the Fair made a success. The Fair is a benefit to the city as well as to the farmer and mechanic who compete for premiums.

I found good results from the use of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey in the treatment of my children for whooping cough. Yours, REV. B. B. BAILEY, Winchester, Ky.

We hope our saloon-keepers will hand out their best brands of whiskey to the Democrats who will be here next week. A good Democrat always wants the best of every thing and especially the best liquor.

E. E. Sutherland Med. Co.

Gents—Ship us six dozen Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, small; three dozen Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, medium. She's a seller. Yours truly,

B. S. HUNT & Co., Druggist, Mayfield, Ky.

Capt. Schuchert tells us that he is in correspondence with some first-class theatrical people. He expects to open the season this year with something extra good.

C. B. Galusha was down town today. Mr. Galusha has been confined to his bed for several weeks and his friends are pleased to see him out again.

FRIDAY.

No cough remedy equals Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey for anybody of any age, from infancy on through life until they are as old as good old Granny Metcalfe.

The Reception Committee for the Congressional convention will have a meeting in the Gun Club rooms at 8 o'clock to-night. All members of the committee are requested to be present.

The Cape County delegates to the Republican State Convention will leave here Monday for Springfield.

Whenever a druggist tells you he has something just as good for your coughs, grip, etc., as Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey don't you believe it for we guarantee that is not true. We make the genuine and authorize all druggists to guarantee it. THE E. E. SUTHERLAND MEDICINE CO., Paducah, Ky.

The fishing party returned home from St. Francis River last night. They had seventy-two empty beer bottles and a big lot of other badly used up glassware. Not one of the party smelt fishy.

The employees of the Chicago & Texas Railroad Company were paid off today. Several hundred dollars of that money comes to this city every month.

E. E. Sutherland Med. Co.

Your remedies are taking well here. Sold on a guarantee and not a bottle or package has been returned. Some say they can see better after using Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve than they could before their eyes became sore. Please ship as soon as convenient, as I need the goods.

Yours,

T. J. WILLIAMS, Druggist, Uniontown, Ky.

Don't read this, ye hungry delegates, candidates and "rooters" who will want a good free dinner on convention day, July 22. If you do read it tell it from Dan to Beersheba that the good-looking ladies of the Baptist church will furnish dinner free on July 22 in Meystead's building on Main street. Yes, a free dinner. It is this way: You pay for your seat at the table, the usual price, and the dinner will be thrown in. See?

D. A. Glenn sold four hundred dollars worth of goods to-day to a Wap-papello merchant.

Prof. Foss, the optician, informs us that he will remain in the city only a few days longer. He is an optician who understands his business. He has an immense stock of spectacles and glasses and he can test and fit glasses to any eye, old or young. Those who need glasses will probably never have an opportunity to have their eyes tested and fitted with glasses by a practical and successful optician like Prof. Foss. Call on him at the Post-office.

IN MEMORIAM.

At Six o'clock a. m. July 4th, 1896, Mrs. Mollie J. Oliver, wife of John F. Oliver, calmly and peacefully passed into that haven of rest where she has found relief from her long sufferings.

A mother, kind, patient and devoted; A loving, gentle wife; a friend sincere.

A noble hearted christian woman, charitable in every respect, such were shining attributes in the life of her who has now attained the reward of a well spent life. Her sufferings were of long duration. Seven months she patiently bore them without a murmur, and was resigned and ready for the summons when it came.

The death of a mother can be realized only by those who have had the same sad experience. Words of consolation seem cold and comfortless; the knowledge that the loved one is happy and at rest, free from pain or sorrow affords the only relief to the saddened hearts left behind.

On Sunday morning at 9 o'clock the funeral exercises were held at the family residence on North and Ellis streets. The interment took place in the cemetery of the First Presbyterian church of Apple Creek near Pocahontas, Cape Girardeau county at two o'clock Sunday afternoon.

On the brow of the hill she was gently laid to rest by the side of her loved ones who so gladly welcomed her into the home "where no sorrow ever comes."

A fond, devoted husband and six children, five daughters and one son, have been left behind to mourn her early death, for she was but 48 years old when life's burdens for her were ended and the cares of this earthly home were no more.

The sympathy of a host of friends is with the deeply bereaved family.

A FRIEND.

Reception Committee.

At the Board of Trade meeting Wednesday night the following were appointed on the reception committee for the Congressional convention to be held in this city next Wednesday:

Hon. W. H. Coerver, W. V. Leech, E. S. Lilly, H. P. Peironnet, Judge Alex. Ross, Dr. S. S. Harris, J. M. Wilson, L. H. Grassie, J. B. Dennis, Leo Doyle, H. Nussbaum, F. E. Burroughs, Will Hirsch, L. S. Joseph, H. L. Hunze, Louis Houck and E. D. Englemann.

Notice.

All persons having claims against Herman Huering, deceased, will please hand in the same to the undersigned for settlement.

July 10-1m. JOS. BARENKAMP.

"Who Wrote That?"

There are times when the question or remark of a persistent interrupter will destroy the effect of a speech and discourage the orator almost to the point of breaking down. When Bryan, of Nebraska, in the Fifty-third Congress, was in the midst of a rhetorical climax, and with arms uplifted was gushing a very familiar line, the House was convulsed by the question of Walker, of Massachusetts: "Who wrote that?" The whole thing was so ridiculous that it was five minutes before Bryan could go on. Here is another: Thomas Bartlett, of Vermont, was renowned for his flights of elaborate rhetorical oratory, and a seat in Congress was the special goal of his ambition. When he was elected a story of how he had been silenced by an audience of college boys got around, and on the occasion of the new member's first appearance the House was prepared to receive him in anything but a serious spirit. Rising to endorse a proposition which had just been vigorously attacked, he began to declaim impressively: "Sir, were it not for the rules of the House I would pour upon the opponents of this measure the full force of my wrath—" He got no farther. Mr. Polk, of Tennessee, was upon his feet in a moment, moving, with every appearance of eager interest, "that the rules be suspended and the gentleman allowed to pour!" Such a disconcerting burst of laughter followed that the unfortunate orator could only subside, wrathfully into silence and his seat.—Troy Times.

Notice.

I have this day sold my entire stock of furniture and undertaking goods to my sons who will continue the business at the old stand under the firm name of A. Walther & Bro. All parties knowing themselves indebted to me will please settle their accounts or they will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection.
